Canvassing Primary, General, and Special Elections

What is the canvass?

Canvass is a proceeding required by law in which the materials, equipment, and results of an election are reviewed, corrected, and officially recorded prior to the certification of that election. The canvass is a public meeting.

Who is the Board of Canvassers?

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. County elections | County Commission |
| 2. Statewide primary or general elections | County Commission |
| 3. Special elections ordered by the county commissions and held in conjunction with a statewide election using same precincts | County Commission |
| 4. Special levy or bond election ordered by Board of Education | County Commission only |
| 5. Municipal primary, general, or special election NOT held in conjunction with any county or state election | Municipal governing body |
| 6. Municipal primary, general, or special election held in conjunction with any county or state election | County Commission |

NOTE: A quorum of the governing body constituting the board of canvassers must be present to conduct the canvass. If a quorum is not present at the start, the meeting will stand adjourned until the next day. The meeting may recess from time to time if a quorum is not present. If the canvass cannot be completed in one session, the meeting may adjourn, but for no longer than absolutely necessary. All procedures must be conducted under the supervision of a quorum of the board.

Who is the presiding officer at the canvass?

The presiding officer of the governing body

Who assists with the canvass?

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| • For canvasses conducted by the county commission | County Clerk |
| • For canvasses conducted by municipal governing body | Municipal Recorder |

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

When is the canvass held?

- Primary elections

The fifth day (not counting Sunday) after the election. If the fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the canvass begins on the next business day.

- General and Special elections

The fifth day (not counting Sunday) after the election. If the fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the canvass begins on the next business day.

Where is the canvass held?

For a canvass conducted by the county commission

County Courthouse

For a canvass conducted by a municipal governing body

City Hall

NOTE: The canvass is open to the public. However, only persons authorized to participate in the canvass may handle materials. At the end of the canvass all materials are to be re-sealed and secured.

Conducting an Optical Scan and ExpressVote/Paper Ballot Canvass

(Counties must also follow touchscreen procedures for each precinct in counties where touchscreens are used for ADA compliance.)

1. Call the meeting to order --- a quorum of canvassing board must be present.
2. Set the amount of bond for a recount. The bond amount cannot be greater than $300.00.
3. Select random precincts to hand count and begin to prepare the materials but do not start the hand count at this time. West Virginia law requires an accounting of the tabulating equipment used during the election. Three percent* of the precincts in counties using electronic voting equipment must be hand counted.

If you have this amount of precincts	THEN	Hand Count this amount of precincts
1 - 33		1
34 - 66		2
67 - 100		3
101 - 133		4
134 - 166		5
167 - 200		6

The Board of Canvassers determines which precincts to hand count by random selection held in an open meeting. The method of random selection is determined by the Board of Canvassers.

4. Have the materials for each precinct ready for the canvassing board. NOTE: Handle only one precinct at a time. Finish all procedures for one precinct completely before starting the next. A precinct worksheet (found in the back of this booklet) should be completed for each precinct as each step is completed. File the information in the election record.
5. Compare the number of ballots cast on Election Day, early voting and absentee as reported on the Statement of Ballots Used (SBU) and the Absentee/Early Voting Record (AEVR) with the number of ballots tabulated. Voted paper ballots must be counted manually for comparison. If the totals are not equal, count the ballot stubs or review the printed reports. Compare them to the number of signatures found on the poll tickets, poll book, or absentee applications.
6. Open the “spoiled ballot” envelope and count the number of “spoiled ballots.” Compare the number of spoiled ballots to the number reported on SBU and AEVR.
7. Open the “provisional ballot” envelope and count the number of “provisional ballots.” Compare the number of provisional ballots to the number reported on SBU and AEVR.

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

8. Determine the number of unused ballots, by reviewing the ballot stub numbers on the ballots.
9. Confirm that the total number of ballots received by the precinct equals the total of the ballots voted, the provisional ballots, the spoiled ballots and the unused ballots. If there is a discrepancy, the board of canvassers must make a determination of the difference and document their findings in the record of canvass.
10. Review the absentee ballots by mail received after Election Day that are to be counted. Absentee ballots are accepted if they are postmarked by the United States Postal Service no later than Election Day. Faxed/emailed ballots are not to be accepted if they are received after the polls have closed. If the ballot is returned by an express shipping service, it must be received by the day after the election. If an absentee ballot is from a MILITARY OR OVERSEAS voter, no postmark is required, but the ballot must be received before canvass starts in order to be counted.
11. Count the total number of absentee ballots. Place all absentee ballots that are to be counted in one stack. Place all absentee ballots not to be counted in the envelope for precinct.

Do not open the absentee ballots that are not counted.

12. Open all of the absentee ballots that are to be counted. Remove the outer envelope and stack the inner envelopes in a pile. Separate and shuffle the inner envelopes to maintain voter secrecy.
13. Open the envelopes and remove the ballots. Remove the ballot stub from each ballot (if applicable) and keep them separate from Election Day stubs. Set aside the ballots that have write-in votes to be tallied separately.
14. Tabulate each ballot and then continue with the write-in ballots. Once all ballots are tabulated, place the absentee ballots, stubs, and all other absentee material back in the precinct envelope. (This includes ballots that were not opened.) Document the number of absentee ballots in the record of canvass.
15. Review each provisional ballot. Determine if the provisional ballot is to be counted. (
16. There are two methods to make the motion concerning validity of a provisional ballot.
 - a. You can make the motion for each ballot separately; or
 - b. You can make the motion for two groups of provisional ballots:
those to be counted and those NOT to be counted.
17. Every effort should be made to maintain the secrecy of the provisional voter. The names of the provisional voters should NOT be announced during the canvass.

NOTE: WEST VIRGINIA LAW REQUIRES THAT PRIVACY OF PROVISIONAL BALLOTS MUST BE ENSURED.

If there is only one provisional ballot from a precinct to be counted, place it with ballots from another precinct in the same district and enter the total for that precinct, but make note in the record of canvass. Provisional ballots that are NOT counted are NOT TO BE OPENED. They are to remain sealed and maintained with other election materials.

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

18. Once the decision is made to count a ballot or group of ballots, open the outer envelope of the first provisional ballot. Mark the outer envelope and the front of the inner envelope with the number 1, continue with the other envelopes from that precinct in the same manner, marking those 2, 3, 4 etc. Please note that the provisional ballots are marked and tracked pending any legal action.
19. Shuffle the unopened inner envelopes. Open them one by one and remove the ballot. Number the back of the ballot to match the inner envelope. Check for write-in votes. Place the ballots with write-in votes in a stack to be reviewed following the same procedures as election night.
20. Tabulate the provisional ballots from each precinct separately. Add the votes to the original returns. Return the ballots to original inner envelopes only by matching the marked numbers.
21. Make an official record of the findings for each precinct, including the comparisons made, number of ballots cast, spoiled, unused, and provisional, etc. If there are any discrepancies, make a detailed note in the record of canvass for that precinct.
22. Keep a copy of the precinct report available for easy access as it may be needed to determine if ballots which do not have the required signatures may be counted. Ballots which do not contain the required poll clerk signatures may be counted if an accurate accounting is made for all ballots in the precinct in which the ballot was voted.

BEGIN THE HAND RECOUNT OF PRECINCTS

23. A quorum of the board of canvassers must be present at all times. If a quorum is not present at any time, the hand count must stop, prolonging the canvass. If commissioners need to leave, they should arrange with the other commissioners to ensure there is a quorum present at all times.
24. You can recess the hand count for breaks or lunch, but a quorum of the board must be present to begin again.
25. To perform the actual count, teams of four individuals work together after having taken a written oath to perform duties fairly. Two members read the votes cast on the ballot. The other two members separately record the votes. Tally sheets should be used for this process.
26. Enter results of hand count in the record of canvass. Compare the hand count tallies with tabulated results of the same precincts.
27. If there is a difference between the tabulated results for any office caused by a mechanical failure of the tabulating equipment, the board of canvassers must determine the error and take corrective measures in accordance with West Virginia Code §3-4A-29. Once that correction is complete, those precincts that were affected by the error must be run through the equipment once again for final tabulation. All activities and issues must be entered in the board of canvassers' record.
28. If there is a difference or more than 1% between the tabulated results for all offices on all ballots (total votes cast) in a precinct and the hand count result in that precinct, all precincts must be hand counted.

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

29. Load the results into the Election Management Software. Follow the instructions for the utility program to forward the results to the Secretary of State's Office. Verify that the results have been received at the Secretary of State's Office.
30. Reseal all precinct materials in the appropriate envelopes. Declare the results and report the date and time of the declaration to the Secretary of State (multi-county races only) by phone or email (elections@wvsos.com).
31. Enter results in the official record of canvass.
32. West Virginia law now requires the 48-hour recount request period to be uniform in a multi-county race (statewide, Senate, House, circuit and family court, Greater Huntington Parks and Recreation District). The 48-hour period does not begin until after the last county affected has declared the results. You cannot certify a race until after the 48-hour recount request period has ended. You can set and announce a date and time to certify the results keeping in mind that you may have to change that time based on when the recount request period legally ends for each race. The Secretary of State's Office will notify you of when the 48-hour period begins.
33. Adjourn the board of canvassers.
33. Secure all election material for a minimum of 22 months following the election.

Conducting a Touch Screen (DRE/iVotronic) Canvass

1. Call the meeting to order --- a quorum of the canvassing board must be present.
2. Set the amount of bond for a recount. The bond amount cannot be greater than $300.00.
3. Select random precincts to hand count and begin preparing the materials but do not start the hand count at this time. West Virginia law requires an accounting of the tabulating equipment used during the election. Three percent* of the precincts in counties using electronic voting equipment must be hand counted.

If you have this amount of precincts	THEN	Hand Count this amount of precincts
1 - 33		1
34 - 66		2
67 - 100		3
101 - 133		4
134 - 166		5
167 - 200		6

The Board of Canvassers determines which precincts to hand count by random selection held in an open meeting.

4. Place the materials for a precinct before you. NOTE: Handle only one precinct at a time. Start and finish one precinct before starting the next. A precinct worksheet, found in the back of this booklet, should be completed for each precinct as each step is completed. File this information in the election record.
5. Print precinct reports using the Election Management Software that include a minimum number of ballots cast, number of spoiled ballots, and number of provisional ballots. Instructions to print each report are in the voting machine guide provided by the Secretary of State’s Office.
6. Compare the number of cast election day ballots and absentee/early voting ballots entered on “Statement of Ballots Used” (SBU) and Absentee/Early Voting Record (AEVR) with the number of ballots tabulated. If totals are not equal, review voter verified paper trail and printed reports. You should also compare them to the number of signatures found on the poll tickets, poll book, or absentee applications.
7. Review the spoiled ballot numbers, provisional ballot numbers, and public count numbers as reported on the SBU to determine that they match the numbers as reported by the Election Management Software. If there is a discrepancy, the Board of Canvassers must make a determination of the difference and document their findings in the record of canvass.

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

8. Review the absentee ballots by mail received after Election Day that are to be counted. Absentee ballots are accepted if they are postmarked by the United States Postal Service no later than Election Day. Faxed/emailed ballots are not to be accepted if they are received after the polls have closed. If ballots are returned by express shipping service, they must be received by the day after the election. If the absentee ballot is from a MILITARY OR OVERSEAS voter, no postmark is required, but the ballot must be received before canvass starts.

9. Count the total number of absentee ballots. Place all absentee ballots to be counted in one stack. Place all absentee ballots not to be counted in the envelope for the precinct.

Do not open the absentee ballots that are not counted.

10. Open all absentee ballots that are to be counted. Remove the outer envelope and stack the inner envelope in a pile to be counted. Separate the envelopes and shuffle the inner envelopes to maintain the secrecy of the ballot.

11. Open the envelopes one by one and remove the ballot from the envelope. Remove the ballot stub and keep it separate from Election Day stubs.

12. Ballots can be tabulated by entering them onto a designated touchscreen device and merging the results into the Election Management Software, or by manually entering the tallied results into the Election Management Software.

NOTE: If you are entering the ballots into the Election Management Software by hand, open the program and select “Update Election Results Manually” from the “Update Menu.” Then select the precinct number from the applicable list. A screen will appear to manually input the results. You can print a precinct number report from the software to confirm correct numbers.

13. Once you have tabulated all of the ballots, place the absentee ballots, stubs, and all other absentee material back in the original envelope. (This includes ballots that were not opened.) Enter number of absentee ballots in the record of canvass.

14. Review the provisional ballot sheets completed by the voter and poll workers on Election Day. Determine if each provisional ballot is to be counted. (See the enclosed provisional ballot chart on page 13.)

15. There are two methods to make the motion concerning validity of a provisional ballot.

- a. You can make the motion for each ballot separately; or
- b. You can make the motion for two groups of provisional ballots: those to be counted and then those NOT to be counted.

16. Every effort should be made to maintain the secrecy of the provisional voter. Although, the information is accessible to the public, names of the provisional voters should NOT be announced during the canvass.

NOTE: WEST VIRGINIA LAW REQUIRES THAT PRIVACY OF PROVISIONAL BALLOTS MUST BE ENSURED.

If the voter used a paper ballot for provisional instead of the voting machine and if there is only one provisional ballot from a precinct to be counted, place it with ballots from another precinct in the same district and enter the total for that precinct, but make note in the record of canvass. Provisional ballots that are NOT counted are NOT TO BE OPENED. They are to remain sealed and maintained with other election materials.

17. Once the decision is made to count a ballot or group of ballots, use the Election Management Software to enter the provisional ballot number from each sheet within each respective precinct. Instructions on completing this process can be found in the “Canvassing Processes” section of the Preparation through Canvass manual for your voting equipment. The Election Management Software will automatically provide new results that include the provisional ballots.

The coded ballots can be found under the “Tabulator” menu on the software. Select “Process Coded Ballots,” and then choose the numbers of the ballots that coincide with the approved provisional ballots.

BEGIN THE HAND COUNT

18. A quorum of the board of canvassers must be present at all times. If a quorum is not present at any time, the hand count must stop, prolonging the canvass. If commissioners need to leave, they should arrange with the other commissioners to ensure there is a quorum present at all times.

19. You can recess the hand count for breaks or lunch, but a quorum of the board must be present to begin again.

20. To perform the actual count, teams of four individuals work together after having taken a written oath to perform duties fairly. Two members read the votes cast on the paper trail and the other two members separately record the votes on the tally sheets. This requirement must be met by removing each roll from the envelope and manually reviewing each vote. The results can only be certified after each roll is reviewed as it is unrolled.

21. Enter the results of the hand count in the record of canvass. Compare the hand count tallies with tabulated results of the same precincts.

22. If there is a difference between the tabulated results for any office caused by a mechanical failure of the tabulating equipment, including a paper jam of the printer, the board of canvassers must determine the error and take corrective measures in accordance with West Virginia Code §3-4A-29. Therefore, if during the canvass, the board of canvassers comes across a paper jam that misconstrues the recorded votes, it will be necessary to print ballot images from the applicable flashcard(s) of each machine affected. These ballot images should be used in place of only the unreadable ballots.

Select the “Create Vote Image Log” from the “Tabulators” menu. (This can only be done after processing the coded ballots.) Once the log is created, select the “iVotronic DRE” from the “Tabulators” menu and then select “Print Vote Image Log.”

23. Once the error has been corrected and the correct tabulation ascertained, all activities and issues must be entered in the record of the canvass.

24. If there is a difference or more than 1% between the tabulated results for all offices on all ballots (total votes cast) in a precinct and the hand count result in that precinct, all precincts must be hand counted.

2018 BEST PRACTICES GUIDE FOR CANVASS

25. Make an official record of the findings on each precinct, including the comparisons made, number of ballots cast, spoiled, unused, and provisional, etc. If there are any discrepancies, make a detailed note in the record of canvass for that precinct.
26. Keep a copy of the precinct report available for easy access as it may be needed to determine if the ballots which do not have the required signatures may be counted. Ballots which do not contain the required signatures may be counted if an accurate accounting is made for all ballots in the precinct in which the ballot was voted.
27. Reseal all precinct materials. Declare the results. Reminder: In accordance with West Virginia code §3-4A-28(a), during the seven days immediately after the canvass, “any candidate or the local chair of a political party may be permitted to examine any of the materials sealed: Provided that a notice of the time and place of the examination is posted at the central counting center before or on the hour of nine o’clock in the morning on the day the examination is to occur...”
28. Enter results in the official record of canvass.
29. West Virginia law now requires the 48-hour recount request period to be uniform in a multi-county race (statewide, Senate, House, circuit and family court, Greater Huntington Parks and Recreation District). The 48-hour period does not begin until after the last county affected has declared the results. You cannot certify a race until after the 48-hour recount request period has ended. You can set and announce a date and time to certify the results keeping in mind that you may have to change that time based on when the recount request period legally ends for each race. The Secretary of State’s Office will notify you when the 48-hour period begins.
28. Adjourn the board of canvassers.
29. Once the information is completely loaded into the Election Management Software, follow the instructions for the utility program to forward the results to the Secretary of State’s Office.
