Constitutional Amendments for the 1992 General Election Ballot

Amendment No. 1 (Local Government Levy and Bond Issue Amendment)

“To amend the state Constitution to reduce from sixty percent to a simple majority the vote required to increase the property tax levy rate and to reduce from three fifths to a simple majority the vote required for passage of the bond issue by counties, cities, school districts, or municipal corporations.”

Amendment No.2 (Veterans Bonus Amendment)

“To permit the appropriation of general revenues or the sale of state bonds for the payment of bonuses and death benefits to veterans of the conflicts in the Persian Gulf, Lebanon, Panama, and Grenada or to their relatives.”

Amendment No.3 (Landowners Protection Amendment)

To amend the state constitution by repealing outdated provisions related to tax-delinquent property. Repeal of these sections will allow for the implementation of laws to protect landowner interests and to simplify the redemption or purchase of tax-delinquent property.”
