

Application for the WV Secretary of State's Office's

Jennings Randolph Award

For Student-led Civic Engagement in West Virginia High Schools

Each year, the West Virginia Secretary of State's office presents the Jennings Randolph Award to high schools across the state which have registered at least 85% of their senior class to vote. Please ensure your school has achieved this before filling out this form.

Gold Level: 100% of the senior class registered to vote. The Secretary of State's office will personally present the school with a commemorative plaque and present lead students with Student Ambassador certificates.

Silver Level: 85% of the senior class registered to vote. The Secretary of State will mail Student Ambassador certificates to lead students.
